

Rosson House Residents

Do you know someone lodged or boarded at Rosson House, or at any of the other historic homes on Block 14? Let us know! Whether they're already on our list of known residents, or if they're someone we've yet to discover, we would love to know more about them, and about you.

If you have any questions about this or any other research, please contact our Research Historian at historian@thesquarephx.org. Thank you!

Today's date: _____

Your first and last name: _____

Your email address: _____

The first and last name of the person or people you know who rented rooms at Rosson House (or any other house at The Square):

Your relationship to that person: _____

The years they lived at Rosson House (or any other house at The Square):

In the area below, please tell us a little bit more about this person. For example: Where they were born, when they moved to Arizona, and what job(s) they may have had locally, along with anything else about them you feel is relevant.

Do you remember any stories they told about living at Rosson House (or any other house at The Square)? Please share as much as you can in the area below.

Do we have your permission to contact you about this information? Please check one:

Yes

No

If you need more space to add Is this going to work better?any additional information, please do so on the following pages. You can return this form to us by emailing it to our Research Historian at historian@thesquarephx.org, or by printing and filling it out, and sending it to The Square at 113 N. Sixth St., Phoenix, AZ 85004.

Thank you for sharing your story!

If you need more space to add any additional information, please do so below.

If you need more space to add any additional information, please do so below.