No Tricks, Just Treats this Fall at Heritage Square!

Phoenix, AZ – There are so many reasons to come see your favorite local landmark this season! Up first, our Heritage Family Days are new this year as a fun and free monthly program located at our Museum Store. Heritage Family Days are one Saturday a month where families can stop by for story time, crafts, coloring, as well as fun games on the lawn. September's Family Day is going to be extra special, as it's on the Worldwide Day of Play, so we'll have some extra fun activities for families to get out and play!

The hottest tickets at the Square this Fall will be for the returning Séances & Spiritualists tour. Called the Best Place to Get Spooked by the Phoenix New Times, the Séances tour takes visitors into Rosson House and back in time to discover how and why Victorians attempted communication with the dead through séances before heading up to the Rosson House attic to listen to a few "haunting" 19th century ghost stories. After the tour is over, visitors will get to end the evening with a little wine and a snack on the front porch of the Shop the Square Museum Store.

We had so much fun last year at our first annual Halloween at Rosson House, we're bringing it back this year on Halloween night! After walking through the House and exploring the Victorian Era mourning artifacts on display, visitors can check out crafts and stories at the Shop the Square Museum Store, where they can shop, sip spiced cider, eat candy, do fun crafts, and savor desserts from the aptly named Vampire Penguin food truck. Costumes and photographs are encouraged for this unique Halloween event! Stick around after the event for more spooky stuff with the return of Edgar Allan Poe's "The Raven," performed at Rosson House by PoeFest.
